Major Tests Lie Ahead on School Aid, Foreign Aid, Road Funds, Defense Funds and Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—With leaders aiming for adjournment three weeks from now, Congress girded today for a busy week which may bring important action on defense money, foreign aid, highways and school aid bills.

Major tests lay ahead too on civil rights legislation and a big veterans' pension proposal.

The Senate neared the voting stage on a hotly debated recommendation by its Appropriations Committee to add more than a billion dollars to the amount President Eisenhower asked for the Air Force in the bookkeeping year which starts next Sunday.

A. F. Head Visits Soviet Aviation Show

Tells Hosts US Will Not Disarm Until Certain of Control

MOSCOW (AP)—Gen. Nathan Twining, U.S. Air Force chief of staff invited to Moscow to see the latest in Soviet aviation developments, has told his hosts the United States will not disarm until it is certain of worldwide control.

Twining, his aides and British and French air force chiefs were among foreign guests yesterday at the Soviet Aviation Day show in which the Russians unveiled three new types of fighter planes and a new jet-propeller transport.

It was the first time U.S. and British air chiefs witnessed the annual display.

Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev told the foreign guests and newsmen the show omitted new heavy jet bombers because "we wanted to emphasize defense, not offense."

The new models shown included (1) three delta-wing jet interceptors assumed capable of supersonic speed, (2) two "advanced type" day fighters of a model called "Farmer" by U.S. airmen and first shown last year, (3) two improved all-weather fighters of the type labeled "Flashlight" by Western observers, also shown in the original version last year, and (4) a single assault-type, twin-engine turboprop transport which can operate from short, unimproved runways.

In all, the crowd of more than 200,000 at Tushino Airport saw about 120 fighters, 40 helicopter transports and only 16 bombers fly over. Last year's show featured 73 bombers.

Western experts said none of the new aircraft was unexpected. They added that the show included nothing startlingly new.

But Twining called the display "very interesting and successful." He said he hoped to examine the aircraft in more detail during his inspection of Soviet air installations and factories in the coming week.

Traffic Takes 14 Lives in Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The grim reaper who rides Missouri highways claimed 14 more victims last week, the Highway Patrol reported today.

That raised the June toll so far to 66 and brought the total for the year to 487—enough people to populate a small town and 78 more than at the same time a year ago.

In the same week last year, 21 persons were killed on the streets and highways, raising the June total to 62 and the year's to 409.

Moving Too Fast

Last night's storm was a heap big gust but not much rain. Maybe the winds were moving the clouds too fast.

The temperatures one year ago today, high 78, low 61, 1.73 inch of rain; two years ago, high 100 low 75; three years ago, high 98 low 70.

Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday with scattered showers and thundershowers tonight and Tuesday; little change in temperature; low tonight near 65; high Tuesday about 95.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 75, 93 at 1 p.m. and 95 at 2 p.m. Low Sunday night 69. Light drizzle Sunday night but insufficient to measure.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 49.2 steady.

Admiral King Dies at 77 In Portsmouth

World War II Chief Had Other Ailments From Heart Failure

Bulletin

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. (AP)—Fleet Admiral Ernest Joseph King, U. S. N., who directed the mightiest sea force the world has ever known in vanquishing the navies of Germany and Japan in World War II, died today in Portsmouth naval hospital after many years of failing health. He was 77.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. (AP)—Adm. Ernest J. King, 77, who led the U.S. Navy to victory in World War II, was reported in critical condition with a failing heart today at Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

The wartime chief of naval operations was reported suffering from a circulatory and respiratory failure after he was stricken with a heart ailment early yesterday.

His son, Lt. Cmdr. Ernest J. King Jr., who flew from Washington to be at his father's bedside, said:

"It is not a heart attack but heart failure brought on by high blood pressure. The son reported the admiral has not been in good health for some time.

Capt. Thomas J. Carter, commanding officer of the hospital, said in a bulletin last night:

"An initial brief rally was followed by signs of increasing circulatory and respiratory failure despite oxygen and digitalis therapy.

"His present condition remains critical, and he is in a state of shock and semicomatose with a doctor in constant attendance.

Adm. King resides at the Navy Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., but normally goes to the Portsmouth Naval Hospital during the summer to escape the heat of the Washington area.

He first took up residence at the naval hospital after he suffered a brain hemorrhage in August, 1947. A hospital spokesman said he never completely recovered.

Adm. King took over as commander in chief of the U.S. fleet just two weeks after the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor.

Three months later he was named chief of naval operations, directing all naval activities and answerable to the President and the secretary of the Navy.

He was the first man ever to hold the positions of commander in chief and chief of naval operations simultaneously.

Missouri Lutheran Debate

Reviews Resolution Condemning The 'Common Confession' As False Doctrine

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Missouri Synod, by far the largest member of the Lutheran Synodical Conference, today reviews the controversial "Common Confession," which sister conference members have attacked as false doctrine.

Delegates to the 43rd triennial convention of the two million member Missouri Synod will decide the fate of a resolution which would make two observations concerning the "Common Confession."

The resolution suggests that the "Common Confession" not be regarded as a functioning basic document toward establishment of altar and pulpit fellowships with other church bodies. But it also urges recognition of the "Common Confession" as a statement "in harmony with the sacred scriptures and the Lutheran confessions."

The Norwegian and Wisconsin Synods, members of the synodical conference, have attacked as inadequate, the "Common Confession," a declaration of doctrine on which the Missouri Synod and American Lutheran Church have agreed.

The Norwegian Synod already has suspended its fellowship relation with the Missouri group and the Wisconsin Synod is watching to see what course is taken at the convention here.

Dr. John W. Behnken of St. Louis, veteran president of the Missouri Synod, told the convention last week that the synod's doctrinal position is "pure" and should not be compromised.

Debate on the issue was to develop as the intersynodical and doctrinal committee reports on its resolutions today. Delegates also will deal with constitutional matters, elect directors and boards, and hear resolutions on finances.

One of the latter proposes formation of a fund raising service, within the church, to administer campaigns for congregations planning new buildings, debt reduction or other causes requiring extra-budgetary revenue.

Dieldrin Is Best For the Control Of Chinch Bugs

Several inquiries have come to the Extension Office of chinch bugs that have moved from small grain to corn. Dieldrin is the only material that is recommended for control. Its only disadvantage is that forage sprayed with it cannot be used for feed or pasture within 30 days.

Spray the corn, after the bugs have moved in, with 8 ounces of dieldrin per acre. Direct the spray on the row, using drop nozzles if needed or plugging the nozzles between the rows, if drops are not used. Aerial applications will give good control, but do not expect complete kills before 48 to 72 hours.

All aerial applications should be flown on both directions over the field—i.e. 4 ounces in 2 gallons of water flow on east and west, and the same dosage applied by flying north and south.

One spraying will remain effective for about 14 days. Repeat the application at that time if bugs are still moving.

We have had several instances of sudan seeded on barley stubble being infested. The only objection to dieldrin for use under such circumstances is the residue, and 30 day waiting period. This is especially a problem where dairy cattle are involved.

More Showers Slated To Hop-Scotch About State Next 24 Hours

KANSAS CITY (AP)—More showers and thunderstorms are slated to hop-scotch about Missouri in the next 24 hours.

They hit about the state yesterday and last night, Jefferson City getting a downpour of 4.03 inches in about 5 hours. Low-lying streets were flooded with surface water.

Strong winds lashed the Jefferson City area as well as that near Republic, Mo. Other rainfall reports included: Bellview 1.71, Rolla 1.38, Booneville 1.30, Marble Hill .95, Salem .86, Springfield .69, West Plains .62, and Joplin .13.

The forecast is for widely scattered thunderstorms principally in the south portion this afternoon or evening and over most of the state tonight and Tuesday.

And that pretty well spells out the forecast for the next five days. The Weather Bureau says rainfall will average .75 of an inch in the extreme northern sections and .25 to .50 elsewhere, with locally heavier amounts, during most of the week.

Harriman Makes Statement— Says Administration Has Given US Warlike Reputation

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—McKeldin said, joining in the running crossfire that has marked the 48th annual Governors' Conference.

The remarks had nothing to do of course, with the main business of the meeting which today concerned itself with problems of education.

Harriman and McKeldin appeared on an NBC television panel discussion.

"This administration is dominated by big business; they are looking at the dollar sign and demand that people around the world, that people do things at our behest," Harriman said.

"We, the American people, the most peace-loving in the world, have gained the reputation of being warlike."

Harriman, who is courting other Democrats at the conference to support his candidacy for the presidential nomination, quoted Secretary of State Dulles as saying "there is no peace anywhere, only an unstable peace."

He said the administration has "tried to fool the American people, and by doing so they have fooled many people around the world."

McKeldin retorted: "If this is war for Americans, I hope this continues indefinitely, because none of our boys are being shot at in the battlefield anywhere in the world, thanks to the Eisenhower administration."

Democratic Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler said in an interview Democrats will be hard pressed to stave off Republican bids for two Senate seats and Kentucky's 10 electoral votes if Eisenhower runs again.

Chandler, who considers himself a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination said he considers Eisenhower "just as personally popular" today as he was four years ago when he lost Kentucky by only 700 votes.

Nasser Proclaims Egyptian Policy As President-elect

More Than 90 Per Cent of Voters Approve Him; He Receives Right To Keep Old Politicians Detained

CAIRO (AP)—Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser, President-elect, promised today "we will be defenders of the constitution and defenders of right." He said Egypt had crushed colonialists and would support "whoever believes in our aims and principles."

He spoke to a crowd congratulating him on being chosen first President of the Egyptian republic.

It included Soviet Ambassador E. D. Kiselev. Nasser was the only candidate in Saturday's election. He got the approval of more than 90 per cent of all Egyptian voters.

The Interior Ministry announced that 94 per cent of the 5,720,000 registered voters took part in Egypt's first secret-ballot election, that 99.7 per cent of those voted for Nasser and that 97.7 per cent ratified the new constitution designating Egypt a republic.

The outgoing Revolution Command Council announced that it has given the minister of the interior power to put "under administrative detention" any persons against whom it had made decisions in the four years since it took over from King Farouk.

The announcement, published in all Cairo morning papers, disclosed the Council used its last meeting, on Friday, to vest such power in the minister for a 10-year period following the ratification of the constitution.

The decision means that, despite Nasser's statement that martial law is lifted, the government for those 10 years will be empowered to detain old politicians like ex-Wafd party leader Mustapha el Nahas and former President Maj. Gen. Mohamed Naguib.

The Council decision, the announcement said, was made "to protect the revolution and to safeguard the entity of the country from those who resisted the revolution during the transition period."

It gave the interior minister power also to seize the property of such persons and deprive them of political rights or even citizenship. In addition, it visited the President with the right to grant amnesty to persons convicted by courts or held under martial law. It gave him power to promulgate laws in the period before the new National Assembly is elected.

An authoritative source said the new constitution gives Nasser the right to assume office without formal inauguration.

Nasser was slated to make his first public address as president at a dinner tonight at the Cairo Officers Club. He was expected to outline the formation of a National Union which will be the only political party under the new constitution.

The Cabinet which served under Nasser as premier is expected to resign when the election results are announced.

Nasser reportedly is planning to let him check out Friday or Saturday if his recovery progress continues as it has been going—"very satisfactorily."

The plans announced by Hagerty mean that the President, hospitalized since June 8, will spend his 40th wedding anniversary at the farm with Mrs. Eisenhower. The anniversary is Sunday.

In reply to questions, Hagerty said he had no information yet as to whether the President may stop at the White House, and perhaps stay there overnight, before going on to Gettysburg.

The press secretary said the President and Mrs. Eisenhower plan to drive the 85 miles to their country home when they do go.

Before his illness, Eisenhower frequently used a plane for trips to Gettysburg.

An 8 a.m. bulletin from Walter Reed Army hospital said:

"The President had a most comfortable night. He slept almost continuously for nine hours. His temperature is 98.6, pulse 78, blood pressure 118 over 70 and respiration 18—all of which are normal."

"His condition continues to progress very satisfactorily. His spirits and morale are extremely high this morning."

The President's sleep of nine hours was his longest and best since he entered the hospital June 8, was the word relayed to the press corps.

The recuperating President faces several decisions regarding his activities in the next month to six weeks.

Both the Pettis County fire truck and the Smithton fire truck answered the call. The alarm was received at the Pettis County department at 7:50 p.m.

Both fire departments sprayed water on nearby buildings and all of them were saved.

None of the Dove family was injured in the fire.

Car Accident Kills Wife, Hurts Husband

SWEET SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—The Rev. J. Rueben Everett, 48, Kansas City minister, was reported in critical condition following an auto accident yesterday in which his wife, Mrs. Jessie B. Everett, 49, was killed.

The highway patrol said the minister's car left U. S. Highway 40 near here, ran across a corn field and finally plunged into a ditch. The minister suffered severe head and chest injuries.

Asks Drivers To Use Care Over Holiday

Col. Hugh H. Waggoner, Missouri Highway Patrol superintendent, today called on all drivers to use the same care and common sense over the 4th of July holiday which they used on Memorial Day when the death count in Missouri was held to two fatalities. Since this year the 4th falls in the middle of the week, it is hoped that many drivers will forego the lengthy trip they might have taken over a combined Holiday-Weekend. The danger however, lies in the fact that some drivers will insist on a single day round-trip visit, and take foolish chances in order to complete it.

Observance of the following common-sense rules will go a long way toward keeping the 4th of July a death-free day on Missouri highways.

- (1) Start sooner and drive slower. Don't try to make up time on the highway.
- (2) Do not pass other cars on hills or curves. Don't cross yellow no-passing lines.
- (3) Don't follow the car ahead too closely. Allow one car length for each ten miles per hour of speed.
- (4) Observe all traffic signs and signals. They are for your protection.
- (5) Don't let your emotions rule your better judgment. Use common sense every minute that you drive.

"The driver who insists on making his own 4th of July driving rules," Waggoner said, "can look forward to being promptly removed from the highway."

Truman Calls Former Job A 'Killer'

LONDON (AP)—Harry Truman today called the American presidency a "killing job" for one man and suggested the solution was "young men who've been trained for the job."

The former President refused to discuss President Eisenhower's illness, but in talking about the office of president said:

"It's a killing job—a six-man job. I know, I've been through it. Asked what he thought was the solution, he replied:

"Young men. We must get young men, young men who've been trained for the job. That's the only way."

Truman was host today to Hugh Gaitskill and eight other members of the British Labor party. They ate lunch at a private room at Truman's hotel.

Referring to his meeting with Sir Winston Churchill yesterday, Truman said:

"Oh, we won the war all over again, took credit for doing it and like two old men had a good time reminiscing."

Earlier, he told newsmen the 81-year-old Churchill was "keen as a briar."

He lunched with Churchill yesterday.

US Communists Won't Go With Khrushchev

NEW YORK (AP)—The U.S. Communist party says it has the "right and duty" to engage in "friendly criticism" of Red comrades in the Soviet Union and other countries.

The party yesterday declared a degree of independence from Moscow's domination. The American Communists also said they couldn't go along with Nikita S. Khrushchev's charges that Stalin was 100 per cent to blame for the excesses of his regime.

Communist parties in Italy, France and Britain have also taken more independent public positions toward Moscow in recent weeks.

The National Committee of the Communist party of the U.S.A. issued a statement yesterday after meeting at an undisclosed place in New York City.

The committee described the party as "an independent Marxist party of American workers dedicated to socialism." The party's relations with Communists in other nations must be based on equality and the "right and duty of all countries to engage in friendly criticism of the theory of practice of the Marxists of any country..." it said.

The committee said it was "deeply shocked" by the anti-Stalin disclosures made by Communist party chief Khrushchev in his recent speech to the 20th Congress of the Russian party.

Musician Turns Priest After Music Success

BEACON, N. Y. (AP)—A jazz musician who was thumping a bass fiddle in a Manhattan hot spot 10 years ago has been ordained a Roman Catholic priest.

Gate Froga—now Father John of the Cross—was ordained yesterday. He had spent years of study and meditation as a brother in St. Lawrence Capuchin Monastery here.

Father John, 39, said he "had an urge for the priesthood" when he went to school in Paterson, N.J. But he became a musician with Les Brown's dance band, the Army all-star band and, later, the Joe Mooney quartet.

"I don't believe that music and God are ever very far apart," Father John said. "The priesthood was always in the back of my mind. Even when I was up on the bandstand... I thought about it."

He still plays his bass fiddle with other musicians among the brothers "just for our own pleasure."

Father John will celebrate his first Mass next Sunday at St. Michael's Roman Catholic church in Paterson.

Says Blacklist Is Widespread In Film World

NEW YORK (AP)—The Fund for the Republic says blacklisting of entertainers is widespread in the movie, radio and television industries.

The practice is much less prevalent in the theater, the fund said. In a two-volume, 599-page report, the fund said yesterday that blacklisting is "almost universally accepted as a fact of life" in Hollywood.

"All the studios are now unanimous in their refusal to hire persons identified as Communist party members who have not subsequently testified in full before the House Un-American Activities Committee," the report said.

"The studios are equally adamant about not hiring witnesses who have relied upon the Fifth Amendment before congressional committees."

The report said blacklisting is "more complicated" in the radio and television fields than in Hollywood.

In radio-TV, the report said, "advertising agencies, networks, program packagers and sponsors all have a voice in deciding who will be used."

"The result is a multiplicity of lists and procedures, different policies on different networks, the creation of a secret and labyrinthine world of political screening."

As for the legitimate theater, the report found "there is no organized blacklisting on Broadway," although the "normal criteria of personal choice—including politics—do operate to some extent."

The report said some producers "feel so strongly about leftwingers that they are loath to hire them; other producers may be similarly prejudiced against right-wingers. But there are no 'lists' which have universal force on Broadway."

The report, based on a study begun in September 1954, was prepared for the fund by John Cogley, former editor of the Commonwealth, Roman Catholic lay magazine, and a staff of 10 reporters.

Cool Air Invades Lakes, Northwest

Cooler air invaded the Great Lakes region and the Northwest today, but steamy weather prevailed over the rest of the nation.

Warm temperatures and high humidity readings were reported from the central and southern plains eastward to the Atlantic Coast. Showers and thunderstorms occurred over much of this area with several cities reporting more than an inch of rainfall.

The cooler air flowed over the Great Lakes region, dropping temperatures 10 to 20 degrees. Grand Marais, Mich., reported an early morning low of 44-48 degrees cooler than yesterday.

The Southwest continued to sizzle. The low temperature today at Needles, Calif., on the Arizona border was 94.

having wonderful time... SHOPPING!

When summer comes, spring is far behind—in sales. People shop a billion dollars more in summer than in spring!

"Summer slump" has been replaced by "summer jump" according to the U. S. Department of Commerce. It reports that retail sales were $45.8 billion last spring, then soared to $46.8 billion in the summer!

People are just as active reading their newspapers in the summer, too. Daily newspaper circulation remains almost constant all year 'round.

Put these facts together and they spell SALES. Make sure you get your share of summer sales—use the newspaper to reach people in the summer. Remember—there's no summer slump in sales or newspaper readership. And there's no summer replacement for the newspaper! All business is local... and so are all newspapers.

Presses Drive Against Rebels Of Nationality

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—French forces pressed a drive today against nationalist rebels at both the eastern and western ends of Algeria. Here in the tense capital the government tightened defenses against hit-and-run attacks.

In the bare Aures Mountains on the east—where the rebellion started nearly 30 months ago—French infantry, cavalry and armored units were trying to encircle a uniformed band estimated at 200 to 300 men near the town of Edgar-Quinet.

The French claimed 51 rebels killed in the operation so far. They believed many of the arms smuggled from Tunisia were hidden in the caves in the area, which long has been a hideout for bandits and maocontents.

Closer to the coast, around the city of Constantine, the French claimed at least 23 rebels killed.

To the west, an estimated 16,000 French troops forged ahead with Operation Pigmy, designed to seal off the frontier with Morocco.

There was no report of the rebels killed and wounded, although the French said they had taken 63 prisoners. Eight French soldiers were reported wounded.

Algiers' population of more than half a million was in a high state of tension after attacks last week by rebel flying squads operating out of the Casbah, the teeming native quarter. Five Europeans were killed.

Youth Wounded After Beating Motorist

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A 16-year-old youth was shot and wounded yesterday while fleeing from a police officer after being involved in the beating of a motorist a short time earlier.

Police said Walter Cody was admitted to H. G. Phillips Hospital with a bullet wound in his hip.

Officer Michael O'Shea said he fired one warning shot at the boy and then three other shots, one of which struck Cody. O'Shea and officer Leon Mordick reported they had driven to an alley to investigate a car parked there, which then drove away, stopped in about a block where the youths fled on foot. The chase ensued.

The other youth escaped.

Police said the car abandoned by the pair had been reported stolen a short time before by Ervin Romine, 49, who told officers two youths jumped on his car and beat him with their fists. He said the youths, one of whom he identified as Cody, ordered him to stop the car, beat him again and took his car and $20.

Each entry should include the contestant's name, the name of the parents, and grade and school which they attend. The entries are to be mailed to the Farm Bureau office, 118 West Third, Sedalia, Mo., by July 27.

Accidents

During a severe and sudden gust of wind Sunday evening a rear door at the home of Mrs. Dora Herndon, 800 East Tenth, was blown shut with unusual force and a large glass in it was shattered. A portion of it struck Mrs. Freda Walker, who lives there, inflicting deep cuts on her left arm.

Mrs. Walker was taken to Bothwell Hospital, where Dr. J. W. Boger attended her taking numerous stitches to close wounds on the arm between the wrist and elbow.

One man was injured and two cars badly wrecked in an accident Friday morning about 8:50 just east of the Whiteman Air Force Base gate No. 16 and south of Highway 50 about two miles. Injured was Ezra Eugene Jones, WAFB, 22, Operations Squadron.

The accident occurred as Jones, driving a 1952 Crosley station wagon, was leaving the base. According to accident reports, Jones drove from the gate and was turning north onto Highway D when he was struck by a 1951 Ford convertible making a bend around a sharp turn. The Ford, driven by Ralph Jewell Hackett, Jr., Gashland, was headed south and believed to be going to the base where Hackett works in construction there.

Jones was thrown into the ditch from his car and was unconscious when the air base ambulance picked him up. He was taken to the WAFB hospital, where he was treated for cuts of the chin and back of the head. Hackett was not injured in the crash.

The Crosley was badly smashed on the left front end and side. Hackett's convertible was wrecked on the right side, right fender and the grill.

State Trooper Richard Joos investigated the accident at the scene.

Two cars were damaged, one more heavily than the other, in an accident which occurred about 10:50 a.m. Friday two miles south of the junction of Highway 52 and Pettis County ZZ in the intersection of ZZ and a road commonly known as the Pettis-Benton County Line Road. No one was injured in the accident.

Involved were a 1950 Ford pickup truck, driven by John Edward Vannoy Route 1, Sedalia, and a 1956 Chevrolet sedan driven by Junior Edgar Mullins, Independence, who was accompanied by his wife and two young daughters.

The scene of the accident was in the intersection of the Pettis-Benton County Line Road and ZZ. Both cars reached the intersection at the same time and collided. The Chevrolet was headed east on Pettis-Benton County Line Road and the pickup truck was going south on ZZ at the time of the crash.

The pickup truck was damaged on the right rear fender. Mullins' car was wrecked heavily on the left front end.

State Trooper Richard Joos investigated the crash at the scene.

Robert W. Otto, Laclede board chairman, in a letter sent to company employees Friday, said the firm decided to discontinue selling and installing heating equipment because it would "not be fair for us to take competitive advantage of the fact we are the only ones who have the list of heating applicants."

Laclede Gas Company Meets on Strike Plan

Iceland's Conservatives Lose Ground

By TOM REEDY
REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Iceland's Conservative Independence party, which wants to keep American troops on this strategic Atlantic island's NATO bases, lost ground in yesterday's parliamentary election.

The alliance of Progressives and Social Democrats, sponsors of the drive to oust U.S. forces from the big Keflavik air base and other installations, almost won a clear majority in the Althing (Parliament), a preliminary count indicated today.

For the first time in the Althing's 1,000-year history more than 90 per cent of the 90,000 qualified voters cast ballots. The results appeared certain to be another coalition government, since neither the conservatives nor their opponents captured a clear majority of the Parliament's 52 seats.

The preliminary count gave the Conservatives, led by outgoing Premier Olafur Thors, 19 seats. In the old Althing they held 21.

The Progressive-Social Democrat coalition appeared to have taken 25 seats, a gain of 3. The Communists held on to 7—the same number they had before—and one place was undecided.

A total of 27 seats is required for formation of a government by a single party or combine of parties. The Conservatives and Progressives had governed together since 1953 but split when the Progressives last March pushed through the Althing a resolution asking withdrawal of American forces within 18 months. The government has asked for discussion of this with Washington.

The National Defense party, which is anti-Communist but made U.S. withdrawal its sole election appeal, apparently had lost the only two seats it held in the old Althing.

Domestic issues were overshadowed in the voting by the intense interest in the demands of the four opposition parties for withdrawal of the 5,000 to 6,000 U.S. Army, Air Force and Navy men manning the Keflavik base and radar listening posts linking North American and European defense networks.

Thors called this a demagogic appeal to Icelandic national pride. He said the reputation and security of the country were at stake and that the agreement permitting the U.S. base could not be renounced without study and preparation.

Chandler Predicts GOP Win in Kentucky If Ike Runs Again

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Democratic Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky said today Democrats will be hard pressed to stave off Republican bids for his state's two Senate seats and Kentucky's 10 electoral votes if President Eisenhower runs again.

Chandler, who considers himself a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, said in an interview that he believes Eisenhower is "just as personally popular" today as he was four years ago when he lost border state Kentucky by only 700 votes.

"If the President thinks he is up to running again, the people will take his word for it," said Chandler, here for the 48th annual Governors Conference opening today.

"If the President runs we will have a hard time holding on to our two Senate seats and keeping the state Democratic. There is some disaffection among farmers, but Eisenhower is just as popular personally as he was four years ago."

300 Delegates Will Convene For NAACP Meet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Seeking a speedup of racial integration in all phases of U.S. activities, more than 800 delegates will convene here tomorrow night for the 47th annual convention of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The six-day convention will open formally in Civic Auditorium with a keynote speech by Thurgood Marshall, chief NAACP attorney. He led the legal battle which won favorable recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions on desegregation in Southern states schools.

Special guests will include Autherine Lucy Foster of Tyler, Tex., first Negro student at the University of Alabama, who was stoned on the campus and later expelled.

Also billed as speakers with grievances to relate are L. A. Blackman of Ellorree, S.C., who NAACP officials say was forced out of his building construction business there by the Ku Klux Klan when he obtained signatures on a school desegregation petition, and Gus Courts of Belzoni, Miss. Courts headed the Belzoni NAACP branch and fled to Texas after reporting he was nearly killed by a shotgun blast when he registered to vote.

Attempts to Break Hold-Up; Gets Hurt

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An off-duty police corporal attempted to break up a holdup at a tavern here Friday night and was seriously wounded in a gun fight with two robbers.

The officer is Cpl. Joseph Moose, 56.

Hospital officials said early today his condition was serious although he seemed to be "improving."

Moose was shot in the abdomen. The officer and his wife were eating in the South Side Tavern when two men, both armed, entered and covered the bartender. One of the robbers started taking money from a cash register. Moose got up from his table and hit him with his service revolver. A gun battle started and the officer was hit after firing six times at the pair.

Police said they believed one of the men was wounded by Moose's fire. About $145 was taken, the tavern owner reported.

The robbers, who fled the tavern, were described as being 35 and 25 years old.

The wounded officer is assigned to the police inspector's office.

Makes Definite Try To Solve Delinquency

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The way is clear for early action in the board of altermen to give legal status to a Metropolitan Youth Commission, described as a "definite attempt to get at" the juvenile delinquency problem.

An aldermanic committee Friday approved the bill after hearing a strong plea by Mayor Raymond R. Tucker. Indications are the bill will come up for final action next Friday before the full board.

The bill would appropriate $10,000 as the city's half-share of the starting budget.

"It may not be successful but it is a definite attempt to get at the problem," Mayor Tucker said.

Mayor Tucker, in answer to a question, said many of the persons involved in a recent series of beatings "are toughs and hoodlums. They should be called that and treated according to the laws."

The board also passed a bill that would provide for closing streets adjacent to elementary schools to through traffic at certain periods of the day.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—James Shaefer, 67, suffered a paralytic stroke while sunbathing early Thursday at popular Crandon Park Beach. Unable to move or ask passing beachgoers for help, he suffered two days' exposure to blazing sunshine. Picknickers finally covered his plight Friday evening. Shaefer was hospitalized in serious condition from the stroke and second-degree burns inflicted by the sun.

British Airliner Hits Nigerian Countryside, Takes 26 Lives Aboard

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—A four-engine British airliner crashed and burst into flames in northern Nigeria last night, killing at least 26 persons.

The plane steward, L. A. Ward of Reading, England, was reported missing. Three of the 18 known survivors were said to be critically injured.

The known dead included stewardess Kay Buckley, 11 women passengers and 2 children.

The passenger list was not immediately available but it was believed no Americans were aboard.

The British Overseas Airways Argonaut, en route from Lagos to London via Tripoli, Libya, had just taken off from Kano, 700 miles northeast of Lagos. It reportedly flew into storm clouds, lost height and crashed into the trees, bursting into flames.

Aboard the aircraft were 38 passengers and a crew of seven. The survivors included the plane captain, Capt. H. V. Tomlinson, 36, a Royal Air Force veteran, and four other crewmen.

An emergency squad from Kano airport rescued most of the surviving passengers.

Says Politics Will Not Be Handicap To Governors Meet

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, who has written himself out of consideration for national office today, formally opens the 48th annual Governors Conference by saying politics would "not be a serious handicap" to the meeting.

Meyner said in a prepared speech of welcome to 46 of the 48 governors of the nation that the presidential campaign year "somehow manages to kindle a burning interest in matters electoral."

The governor wrote himself out of the national picture at a news conference yesterday, reiterating that he was not a candidate for president or vice president and that he would resist efforts to make him a favorite son on the first ballot of the Democratic National Convention in August.

Of the Governors Conference, first in New Jersey in 20 years, Meyner said:

"It has been remarked facetiously that this may be the only national political convention of 1956 at which both major political parties will be represented.

"This distraction or diversion will not be a serious handicap to the conference."

High Winds, Rain Storm in Australia

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Torrential rains accompanied by gale force winds caused floods and widespread damage today in south western Australia.

Rivers throughout the state of New South Wales were on the rise, threatening to sweep out bridges and cut roads. Floodwaters created a vast lake, 70 miles wide at some points, in the Riverina district. Some families were evacuated.

The Sydney Daily Mirror speculated that the stormy weather might be a result of the British atomic test June 19 in the Monte Bello Islands, off Australia's northwest coast.

Records Strong Earth Tremors in Islands

ZEBULON, N.C. (AP)—Folks in this eastern North Carolina town of less than 2,500 near Raleigh today talked over their impressions of Margaret Truman Daniel, the new bride of the local druggist's son.

The former President's daughter accompanied her husband, Clifton Daniel Jr., here for a weekend visit to meet relatives and friends. It was their first trip to North Carolina since their wedding in the Truman home town of Independence, Mo., last April.

The couple left by train last night for New York, where Daniel is assistant foreign editor of the New York Times.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Daniel Sr. were hosts at an informal open house yesterday afternoon, with only relatives and townspeople invited to meet the newlyweds.

Suggests Release Of Church Prisoners

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—A leading Roman Catholic layman suggested before a 58-nation Congress here that the Communist countries release imprisoned churchmen for whose detention Stalin presumably was to blame.

Giorgio la Pira, the ascetic mayor of Florence, told the 5th International Congress of Peace and Christian Civilization Friday:

"Their (imprisoned churchmen's) release as soon as possible would be an act which follows politically, since the iniquitous trials which opened the jail door to cardinals, bishops, priests and the faithful were decisively influenced by a man whose immense iniquity has now been officially admitted by the leaders of those (Communist) states."

Explorer Scouts Get Lost in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Five Kentucky Explorer Boy Scouts and their scout leader got lost in downtown St. Louis yesterday.

The group was in one car of a five-car convoy from Lexington, Ky., headed for a scout ranch in New Mexico. Leon Cooper, 42-year old leader, said the arrangement was to meet at the "edge of town."

But Cooper couldn't find the other cars after driving across a Mississippi River bridge. He toured the downtown area in vain, then reported to police who brought them together.

Distributing Expense Keeps Food Too High

ROME, Italy (AP)—Farm prices are dropping in many countries, but marketing and distributing costs still make food too expensive for many pocketbooks.

The Food and Agricultural Organization in its 1956 report said that in large areas of the world the bulk of the population remains underfed.

"At the same time," the report summary said, "large surpluses of some agricultural products have accumulated, primarily in the dollar area, and there has been a marked fall of farm prices in many countries."

"Marketing and distributing costs remain constant, or even increased in some countries," the report said, "so that the lower prices were not passed on proportionately to the consumer."

The world produced 788 million tons of petroleum in 1955.

Every now and then we read something about the importance of promoting a product so that it may meet public acceptance and the purchasing thereof.

The other day we read an item in the Missouri Press Association news letter which deserved a second reading and having accomplished the second perusal, the weather being hot and humid with no signs of desisting, we offer the following tragic story to compensate for your own imaginary ones. At the same time there is a moral involved and also a tiny bit of circulation promotion of our own product — this newspaper.

"A man who always refused to subscribe to his home town newspaper sent his little boy to borrow a copy from his neighbor. In his haste, the lad knocked over a $4 stand of bees, and in ten minutes he looked like a warty summer squash. His father ran to his assistance and, failing to notice the barbed-wire fence, ripped a $5 pair of pants.

"The family's cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and headed for the cornfield where she killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the man's wife ran out and upset a 4-gallon churn of cream into a basket of baby chicks — drowning the entire batch.

"In the excitement she dropped and broke a $35 set of false teeth. The baby, left unattended, crawled through the spilled cream into the parlor, ruining a $50 rug.

"As the excitement mounted, the oldest daughter eloped with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four shirts hanging on a clothesline.

"The general store had a special on shirts that Saturday at a dollar each instead of the regular price of $3.92 plus sales tax, but our friend didn't know about it. He bought six a week later for $24 and the money he didn't save on the shirts alone would have paid more than one year's subscription to his home town daily paper."

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Facts On Ike's Health Not All Told

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The most important question, next to the status of Eisenhower's health, is whether the American people are getting the true facts about his health.

There have been so many conflicting statements by distinguished doctors, some of them at the top of their profession, regarding Ike's health that the public is confused. It's quite possible also that the President himself may be confused.

To ascertain whether the public has been getting the whole truth, here is a review of the various health incidents in the President's life and the public statements made about them by his personal doctor, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder and his press relations expert, Jim Hagerty.

On Aug. 4, 1953 a statement that Eisenhower had high blood pressure was flatly denied by Hagerty. Yet in 1941, Kay Summersby, the British WAC who was Eisenhower's secretary during the war, wrote in her book "Eisenhower was my boss" on Pages 30 and 167: "He was inclined to suffer from high blood pressure and neuritis was likely to visit his shoulder." . . . "The General suffered bad headaches and complained about his blood pressure."

The Neuritis, now diagnosed as bursitis, is still with the President, while high blood pressure is contributory to a heart condition.

In May, 1952, just before Eisenhower was to leave Paris, he suffered a ten-day siege of what was probably ileitis. Several high Republicans were in Paris to see him to prepare for the GOP convention, but were told Ike was busy with final plans concerning the defense of Europe, could see no one. Meanwhile he was running such a high fever that he was delirious and talked of moving troops and calling general staff meetings.

Meanwhile, newsmen who did not know he was sick wanted a farewell press conference; the GOP politicians were getting restless; and General Ridgway was soon to arrive. A public appearance became inescapable.

Finally a French specialist was called in to assist Dr. Snyder. He took Ike off antibiotics, and shortly thereafter the General was well enough to ride to the airport to welcome Ridgway, though wearing dark glasses. His car was rushed to the privacy of an airplane hangar immediately afterward to let Ike rest.

This incident was never revealed to the public, but it was known to the doctors who pronounced him fit from "head to toe."

"Digestion in Denver"

On Sept. 24, when Ike was first stricken in Denver, Dr. Snyder first announced at 8 a. m. that the President had suffered a "digestive upset." At noon the Summer White House an-

Guest Editorial—

INDEPENDENCE EXAMINER: A Dangerous Practice—The wail of a siren heard at a distance or the flashing red light of an emergency vehicle caught in a rear view mirror should be frightening enough to any motor car driver to make him automatically pull off the road to a safer spot. In the darkness of night the terror should be compounded many-fold. Yet many motorists risk their lives every day by not complying with the law.

Two incidents showing driver indifference to such a perilous situation were reported when three ambulances and a sheriff's car were summoned to the scene of an accident at Oak Grove last week that resulted in two fatalities. A man driving with his family north on Noland Road just north of 35th heard the sirens. There were two red lights indicating two emergency vehicles coming toward him. He immediately pulled to the shoulder of the highway. Two other cars behind him were driven blithely forward. Meeting the two ambulances, it looked for a moment as though one of would be sideswiped, but the good maneuvering of the ambulance driver saved the silly motorists.

Another ambulance and a sheriff's car were met farther down the road. Several cars kept going instead of pulling off the road. When the fast-moving emergency cars turned on U.S. 40 and headed east, an official following one of the ambulances said that, believe it or not, two cars passed him and the ambulance which was hitting a terrific speed.

How crazy can you get?

The law gives an emergency vehicle the right-of-way. It is designed to assure the mercy mission a chance to reach the scene of trouble as quickly as possible.

Any motorist who continues forward in the face of an oncoming ambulance, fire truck, police car with sirens wide open and who makes no effort to stop or pull off the pavement endangers himself and his family. He should lose his driver's license and examination of his head should be in order.

nounced the President was suffering from "indigestion."

It was natural for Dr. Snyder to suspect indigestion, because Ike had a long history of what is now publicly called ileitis. Not only did it occur in Paris but in Key West, and several times in Washington. Later, it was admitted at the summer White House that Snyder had noted the "first symptom" of a heart attack as early as 2:45 a.m., though at 8 a.m. he called it a "digestive upset."

On Feb. 15, 1956, immediately after Dr. Paul Dudley White's prediction that Ike could carry on "five to ten years" of active life, Dr. Samuel Levine of the Harvard Medical School challenged that anyone could predict a heart patient's life. Whereupon White agreed with Dr. Levine and pointed out that he had hedged his own prediction with such qualifying phrases as "uncertainties of the future," "chances," and "should." The public, however, didn't get Dr. White's fine print.

On May 12 when Eisenhower was given his "head-to-toe physical examination, he was pronounced in splendid condition. Not a word was said about his long history of stomach upsets, now called ileitis.

On June 10, Dr. Snyder blandly told newsmen that Ike had had ileitis before. When newsmen inquired how the doctors could make an accurate diagnosis so rapidly, it was explained that they were familiar with his previous trouble.

On June 14 when newsmen asked Hagerty why the ileitis condition hadn't been given to the public after the "head-to-toe examination" he replied: "It didn't show up," and he referred newsmen to a previous statement by Snyder.

"In the head-to-toe examination," Snyder had previously explained "there was no inflammation of the ileum."

Yet Snyder had cared for Ike in repeated cases at Key West, in Paris, in Washington, and had blandly admitted to newsmen that the President had a history of ileitis.

That is part of the record of how the American people have not been told the truth about the President's health. It's strongly suspected that perhaps the President himself has not been told the entire truth either.

Applause For Seaton

In the judgment of the U.S. Senate and a good many others, Fred Seaton of Nebraska will make a good Secretary of the Interior.

And many of us who have observed this young man's success in the publishing and related fields are convinced Fred is headed for more responsible posts in federal government — may be even as a vice-president.

Perhaps the best tribute to him is that from certain Democrats who were highly critical of his predecessor, Douglas McKay of Oregon. At the risk of depriving themselves of political ammunition, these men let it be known they view Seaton as a wise choice for the post.

Since the day he first plunged into politics as an appointed senator to fill a Nebraska vacancy, Seaton has moved upward in Washington's estimation.

He comes to Interior from a substantial period of service on President Eisenhower's White House staff, where he functioned in the touchy realm of administration relations with Congress.

The broad acceptance of him in his new job is one measure of how well he handled that assignment.

The hot currents of the public vs. private power issue swirl about the Interior Department and seem sure to embroil Seaton. Yet he acts like the kind of a man who just might ride them out safely.

Certainly his appointment has blunted the issue. And it may also turn out that voters generally, or even regionally, are not nearly so concerned with it today as contestants in this fight appear to imagine.

The World Today—

American Reds Confess to Many Errors

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The leadership of the American Communist party has confessed to a series of damaging mistakes and bad guesses, besides conceding the party looked silly in thinking Stalin was infallible.

These mistakes include a dumb reliance on Karl Marx without looking at facts, the party's support in forming the Progressive party in 1948, and repeated predictions of war and depression.

Some results: The party has lost heavily in membership and in influence in politics and organized labor; it hasn't been able to win any "mass" support; and it has isolated itself from the main stream of American life.

The admissions came from Eugene Dennis, the party's real boss, and Max Weiss, its educational director, in reports to the Central Committee. Those reports have been printed in pamphlet form.

The reports were made after Russian Communist party boss Khrushchev had listed the mistakes and crimes he said were committed under Stalin.

Dennis said the party had neglected work in the big unions; had backed away from united fronts, which it is now seeking; did not appreciate until a couple of years ago the new world role of the Asians; had erred in making membership qualifications too tight; was wrong in lumping the "Eisenhower forces" and McCarthyism together; and was obviously away off in predicting immigrant wars and depressions ever since 1945.

How did all this happen? Dennis blamed some of it on pressure and prosecution by the government. But he said, in effect, the party was so eager to lead the masses it forgot to notice the masses were going the other way.

But Weiss said the Communists will have to "rediscover America" and begin to study its "realities" and struggles. Taking his cue from Khrushchev's revelations about the extent of one-man rule in Russia, Weiss said:

The general membership of the American Communist party has never been able to have a say in the big decisions, that these were handed down from the top. The members ought to be able to discuss problems too, he said.

The question not answered by the Dennis-Weiss statements was why they suddenly thought the members ought to be consulted a little only after Khrushchev said collective leadership was better than one-man rule.

As to the Progressive party, set up in 1948 with Henry Wallace as its presidential candidate, Dennis said:

"I believe it was erroneous and harmful to support the formation of the Progressive party as a third party." He said he had to assume a lot of the blame for this himself.

But then, he said, the party made another mistake in thinking, after the 1948 elections, that the Progressive party still had a future.

The Communists have had their eye on a third party—a united front or labor-farmer party, steered by them but not under their name—ever since 1924 when they tried and failed.

Stalin suggested it for this country in 1928. Earl Browder wanted it when he was party boss in 1935. And now Dennis in his report hints at that kind of party in the future but not right away.

Weiss blamed blind reliance on Marx's "theory of economic crisis" for the wrong guesses about depressions between 1945 and 1954. "Everything was very simple," he said, if you followed Marx.

But the trouble, he said, was in the difference between the present world and the 19th century world of Marx. Conditions have changed and facts too, he said. And Marx was making predictions based on 19th century facts.

"We must," Weiss said, "do the same thing Marx did in his day. We must study the facts." Up-to-date ones, that is.

Dr. Jordan Says—

Low Blood Pressure Is No Cause for Concern

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

"So little is said about low blood pressure" writes Mrs. W. S., "that I wish you would comment on it." This and many other letters along the same line indicate that it is desirable to write on low blood pressure even though it really does not deserve too much attention.

There are, it is true, a few diseases which are definitely associated with lower than normal pressure. Most of these, however, are relatively uncommon and can usually be identified without great difficulty.

Ordinary low blood pressure is a matter of little concern from the health standpoint. There does seem to be general agreement that low blood pressure of itself, unless definitely tied to some physical abnormality — and this is the exception — is likely to be accompanied by a long life and generally above-average health.

There are only a few exceptions: One condition known as Addison's disease is characterized, among other symptoms, by a low blood pressure but this is rare.

There is another condition in which low blood pressure appears off and on, known as carotid sinus syndrome. Sudden pressure on the neck or sudden motion of the head may bring on an attack of low blood pressure together with other symptoms but this is not the type of low blood pressure in which most readers are interested.

Occasionally, a person will have a drop in blood pressure when moving from a lying or sitting position to a standing one, and this may require some attention. It goes under the tongue-twisting name of orthostatic hypotension.

It is hard to say whether there are any symptoms which can be blamed on low blood pressure and nothing else. Certainly some people who have low blood pressure complain of lack of pep or some other vague symptom but this is just as likely to arise in the mind as it is from the blood pressure.

Even if the blood pressure should have something to do with such complaints there is not much which can be done about it. Medical men lack any good, safe way to raise the blood pressure and it is better left alone unless some condition is present which should be treated on its own account.

Low blood pressure causes a great deal of unnecessary worry. With only a few exceptions the person with below normal pressure

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Lt. Gov. James T. Blair, a front runner for the democratic nomination for governor, is getting the feel of the office this week.

Gov. Phil M. Donnelly left Sunday for the National Governors' conference at Atlantic City. He and Mrs. Donnelly planned to visit relatives in Philadelphia for several days after the four day meeting of governors.

Since the constitution provides that the lieutenant governor shall be acting governor while the chief executive is out of the state, Blair may be getting a preview of the office. Blair's campaign headquarters said the candidate would confine his activities to the Jefferson City area while the governor is out of the state.

L. C. (Clet) Carpenter, who bowed out of the Democratic race for governor several weeks ago, says he has "just no idea" how many of his supporters are now backing the Blair for governor campaign.

Asked whom his supporters are now backing in the race for governor, Carpenter snapped, "That's their business. I made no recommendations."

However, Blair's campaign manager, Jack Stapleton, reports that "considerable numbers" of Carpenter supporters are now on the Blair bandwagon. "We've had fine response from the Carpenter people," Stapleton said, "including a number of Carpenter's appointees."

A new idea for getting campaign funds for political office seekers has been dreamed up by Boyd Carroll, St. Louis Post Dispatch reporter in Jefferson City.

"They should give Eagle stamps with each contribution to the campaign fund," Carroll expounded. "Then the contributor with the highest number of stamps would be offered the most lucrative appointive position—if the candidate is successful."

Stevenson Faction Holds California Delegate Control

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP)—A majority faction headed by Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown held firm control today of California's Democratic delegation pledged to Adlai Stevenson at the party's presidential nominating convention.

Decisions taken at a weekend meeting of the 68-vote delegation indicated too that Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, present Democratic state chairman, and her outvoted followers are on the way out as party powers along with others who campaign for Sen. Estes Kefauver.

The 92 delegates and 34 alternates overwhelmingly re-elected Paul Ziffren of Beverly Hills as Democratic national committee man for California.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Kentfield was picked for national committeewoman, succeeding Mrs. Clara Shipser of Berkeley, one of Kefauver's foremost California rosters.

On motion of Rep. Clair Engle of Red Bluff, Stevenson's California delegates agreed to stand by him "until nominated."

Maintenance Is Important Part of Gardening Program

Prevent Weeds From Leaching Soil Richness

By Arthur E. Gaus
MU Extension Horticulturist

By now most early vegetable plantings have been harvested or are being harvested and we should have all warm season vegetables planted. This leaves the maintenance jobs to be done. Actually, these are the most important jobs in our garden program for if they are not successfully carried out, the previous time and expense put into the garden are wasted.

One of the most important maintenance jobs is cultivation. Don't let weeds rob your soil of moisture and nutrients which are needed for the growth of your vegetables. Deep cultivation tears up the surface roots of the plants and is likely to cause considerable injury. So shallow cultivation, just deep enough to get rid of weeds, should be maintained throughout the remainder of the season.

Another maintenance job is the control of insects and diseases. We usually have plenty of insects every year, whether it is wet or dry. Diseases are usually more prevalent during periods of moist, humid weather. We quite often have these periods about this time so it might be advisable to include a fungicide along with an insecticide, at least on tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, and all the vine crops. Early blight and septoria leaf spot are the two most important foliage diseases on tomatoes, whereas anthracnose and angular leaf spot are the most important on vine crops.

Zineb or Captan are two materials which do a very good job of controlling the above mentioned diseases if they are used regularly, every 7 to 10 days. Remember, in controlling diseases, we must prevent the fungus from entering the leaf. To do this we must have the toxic material on the leaf to kill the fungus spore before it has a chance to enter.

Another garden chore which needs to be done about this time is the sidedressing of vegetables with nitrogen. Tomatoes should be sidedressed when the first tomatoes that set reach the size of a golf ball. At this time apply about 1/2 pound of ammonium nitrate or similar fertilizer for each 50 feet of row. Apply the nitrogen in a band about ten inches to the side of the stem or the spread of the branches. Cultivate the nitrogen in lightly. If you don't get rain within a few days, water the nitrogen in so that it gets down around the root system where it can be taken up by the plant. Apply a second sidedressing of ammonium nitrate on your tomatoes about the time you pick your first fruit.

Cantaloupes and cucumbers will respond to sidedressings of nitrogen when they begin blooming and again 3 - 4 weeks after the first application. Use 1/2 pound of ammonium nitrate per 50 feet of row applied in the same manner as suggested for tomatoes. Be careful not to get the ammonium nitrate on the foliage of the plant as it can burn. Also, do not think that if 1/2 pound is good, one pound is better. It may be enough to drop tomato blossoms or even kill the plant.

Large Flock Owners Need Refrigeration

If you have a flock of 500 hens or more, extension poultry specialists at the University of Missouri say you should consider building a refrigerated, egg cooling room in your laying house.

The poultrymen point out that many hatching eggs are being sold on a hatchability basis. In addition, more eggs are being marketed on a graded basis. In many cases, the use of a special egg cooling room will greatly improve the quality of eggs being sold.

The refrigerated, insulated egg cooling room in most cases can be conveniently located in the middle or one end of the laying house. Then eggs have to be carried only a short distance when gathered. The egg room should be located so that the eggs are easily picked up for marketing. In addition, there will probably have to be a small handling and casing room adjoining the cooling room.

According to the specialists, a poultryman with a high producing flock of 1000 to 1200 birds and selling on a hatchability or graded basis can get an additional $400 income annually through proper cooling. And this increase can be tripled for the producer now selling without regard to quality if he will use a good egg cooler and a market where the additional quality will be paid for.

As for costs of such an egg cooling unit, the specialists say the cost of investment, depreciation, and operation is about one third cent per dozen.

Explains Rise In Feed Grain Support Price

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Chairman, C. A. Staples today explained the increased feed grain support prices for 1956 crops as set by the Agricultural Act of 1956. He said that the increased support prices for 1956 crop oats, barley, grain sorghums, and rye reflect 76 per cent of their parity price as of May 1. Support rates for 1956 crops of the four feed grains, announced before the enactment of the new law, reflected 70 per cent of the Jan. 15 parity price.

The national average dollars-and-cents support rates for 1956 crops of these four commodities now are: Oats, 65 cents per bushel for Grade No. 3 or better, as compared with the earlier announced price of 59 cents per bushel. The new barley support price is $1.02 per bushel for Grade 2 or better (except mixed barley), the old barley support price was 93 cents. Rye, the support price is now $1.27 per bushel for Grade 2 or better or No. 3 on test weight only, as compared with the prior support of $1.16 per bushel. The support price for grain sorghums was increased from $1.80 per hundred weight to $1.97 per hundred weight for Grade 2 or better (except mixed grain sorghums).

The revised national average support rates compare with average support prices for 1955 crops of 61 cents per bushel for oats, 94 cents per bushel for barley, $1.18 per bushel for rye, and $1.78 per hundred weight for grain sorghums.

A program to expand markets for wheat and wheat products in Japan through an educational and promotional campaign will be carried out under a cooperative agreement made between the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service and Oregon Wheat Growers' League. Japan is the first country to be named under the agreement calling for the development of projects to increase U. S. wheat sales abroad.

Kitchens mounted on buses, to be used for food demonstrations throughout Japan, will be one of the features of the program. The kitchens will enable nutritionists to show Japanese housewives how to prepare balanced, low - cost meals, including wheat products and to explain to them the advantages of wheat and wheat products.

The project also includes the training of food specialists, and the establishment of training centers for bakers to teach them the preparation of wheat and wheat products.

Drops Match Book Into Underground Oil Tank

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What happens when you drop a book of lighted matches down a pipe into an underground storage tank for waste oil at a gasoline station?

Robert Fletcher, 8, and James Plunkett, 10, learned the answer the hard way. Both suffered third degree burns of the face and arms when the resulting explosion sent hot oil spurting 20 feet.

The blast caused by igniting fumes in the tank apparently put out the fire, authorities said. No other damage was caused.

Late Plantings of Sudan Can Be Help in Emergency

Sudan grass can be seeded as late as July 10 for use as pasture, silage or hay. Plantings this late will not make as much total growth as earlier plantings but they can still be a big help in an emergency.

Fertilizer treatments for sudan grass are essentially the same as for corn. Use about 25-30 pounds of seed on a well prepared seed-bed.

Piper and Greenleaf are the two recommended varieties. They make somewhat more growth, recover faster after grazing, have more resistance to leaf diseases, and are lower in prussic acid content than the older varieties.

Common or sweet sudan may be as productive as these other two varieties but danger of prussic acid poisoning is greater. Common or sweet sudan can be used for hay or silage but are not recommended for pasture.

Only certified seed is recommended where the crop is to be pastured. Certification is the only good assurance that the seed is free of sorghums or of natural crosses with sorghums that would make the crop very dangerous to pasture.

The use of certified seed is no guarantee that prussic poisoning will not occur so caution is required when animals are first turned on pasture.

Excess growth above that needed for pasture can usually be handled easiest as silage. Hay made from sudan will feed about like timothy hay but the crop is difficult to cure and handle as hay.

Referendum Vote Will Affect Two Program Parts

How wheat farmers vote in the July 20 referendum on wheat marketing quotas will actually affect only two parts of the 1957 wheat program, according to Murray C. Colbert, chairman of the Missouri State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Whether or not quotas are approved, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the crop, the chairman declared.

The two points at issue in the vote are (1) whether marketing quotas shall be in effect, with penalties on "excess" wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) not in compliance with the acreage allotment; and (2) the level of price support available to those who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

If quotas are approved by a least two-thirds of those who vote in the referendum, the quotas and penalties for excess production will be in effect, and price support on the crop will be available at a level between 75 and 90 per cent of parity to those who comply with the farm wheat allotments.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove the quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no penalties for excess production, and the available price support will drop to 50 per cent of parity, as provided by law.

Whether or not quotas are in effect, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the 1957 wheat crop.

Chairman Colbert explained that wheat marketing quotas and acreage allotments operate only in commercial wheat States, including Missouri. Since the quotas affect only those growers in the commercial area who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm in 1957, these growers are the only ones eligible to vote in the referendum.

Farmer Dies in Wreck

LAMAR, Mo. (AP)—A 52-year-old Barton County farmer was killed near the rural community of Lanthia Saturday when his truck and a car collided. He was Leslie Frieden. The driver of the car escaped serious injury.

Representatives of the Extension and Farmers Home Administration offices will assist with the meetings.

Much preparation necessary

I had the opportunity to accompany the County ASC Committee, the office manager, program man and office clerk in charge of the soil bank program to a district meeting Friday at Higginsville.

The men had all left wheat standing in their fields to attend this meeting.

They also made plans at the meeting to call in all township committees Monday and Tuesday of this week to set wheat and corn productivity figures. They realized that was asking a whole lot from their township committees. On the other hand a time schedule had been set up so as to salvage as much as possible from the program in 1956.

Actual sign-up will follow on the heels of the informational meetings and will be done in the county office. Farmers and landowners should realize the sacrifice their county and township committees are making at this time of the year and do everything they can to cooperate.

That cooperation can include full attendance at the informational meetings Thursday and Friday nights. It might also include prompt sign-up of those interested in the program.

I do not have space here to list all the township committees who have a part in getting ready for the sign-up. However, the County Committee includes C. A. Staples of Houstonia as chairman; Norman Gibson of Route 2, Sedalia, and L. W. Ragar of Ionia as other members of the committee; the office manager, Carl E. Johnson of Green Ridge; and the program man, Erwin Rumpf of LaMonte.

Redemption of Certificates In Grain Will Reduce Surplus

Compensation on the program will be in negotiable certificates. Those issued with respect to wheat and corn may be redeemed in grain so will help to reduce the surplus.

Two Specialists Added to State Extension Staff

Two new marketing specialists have been added to the staff of the Missouri Agricultural Extension Service.

Thomas Day of Columbia has been named extension poultry marketing specialist. Glenn Grimes of Salem will work as extension livestock marketing specialist.

Both men will start their new jobs July 1. They will make possible an expanded extension marketing program in the livestock and poultry fields. This program is currently being carried on by Ted Joule, poultry marketing specialist, and Jim Reynolds, livestock marketing specialist.

Day is currently director of the egg division of the Missouri State Department of Agriculture. He is a 1952 graduate of the University of Missouri.

Grimes is a native of Hartsville and is also a graduate of the University of Missouri. HE is presently county extension agent of Dent County.

Questions Spelling Of 'Court House'

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Is it court house or courthouse?

The words "St. Louis County Court House" are out deep in stone over the governmental building in suburban Clayton. It wasn't questioned for six years.

Then the Metropolitan St. Louis Civic Register, an annual guide published recently, said, "It's courthouse, not court house," and cited a dictionary, the county charter and counselor's office as proof.

Defense arguments say there's a precedent for the two-word usage at the "U.S. Court House" downtown. And architects of the six-year-old building say the two-word style looks better.

The word "science" comes from the Latin "sciens," meaning "to know."

Only certified seed is recommended where the crop is to be pastured. Certification is the only good assurance that the seed is free of sorghums or of natural crosses with sorghums that would make the crop very dangerous to pasture.

The use of certified seed is no guarantee that prussic poisoning will not occur so caution is required when animals are first turned on pasture.

Excess growth above that needed for pasture can usually be handled easiest as silage. Hay made from sudan will feed about like timothy hay but the crop is difficult to cure and handle as hay.

Referendum Vote Will Affect Two Program Parts

How wheat farmers vote in the July 20 referendum on wheat marketing quotas will actually affect only two parts of the 1957 wheat program, according to Murray C. Colbert, chairman of the Missouri State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Whether or not quotas are approved, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the crop, the chairman declared.

The two points at issue in the vote are (1) whether marketing quotas shall be in effect, with penalties on "excess" wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) not in compliance with the acreage allotment; and (2) the level of price support available to those who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

If quotas are approved by a least two-thirds of those who vote in the referendum, the quotas and penalties for excess production will be in effect, and price support on the crop will be available at a level between 75 and 90 per cent of parity to those who comply with the farm wheat allotments.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove the quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no penalties for excess production, and the available price support will drop to 50 per cent of parity, as provided by law.

Whether or not quotas are in effect, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the 1957 wheat crop.

Chairman Colbert explained that wheat marketing quotas and acreage allotments operate only in commercial wheat States, including Missouri. Since the quotas affect only those growers in the commercial area who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm in 1957, these growers are the only ones eligible to vote in the referendum.

Farmer Dies in Wreck

LAMAR, Mo. (AP)—A 52-year-old Barton County farmer was killed near the rural community of Lanthia Saturday when his truck and a car collided. He was Leslie Frieden. The driver of the car escaped serious injury.

Representatives of the Extension and Farmers Home Administration offices will assist with the meetings.

Much preparation necessary

I had the opportunity to accompany the County ASC Committee, the office manager, program man and office clerk in charge of the soil bank program to a district meeting Friday at Higginsville.

The men had all left wheat standing in their fields to attend this meeting.

They also made plans at the meeting to call in all township committees Monday and Tuesday of this week to set wheat and corn productivity figures. They realized that was asking a whole lot from their township committees. On the other hand a time schedule had been set up so as to salvage as much as possible from the program in 1956.

Actual sign-up will follow on the heels of the informational meetings and will be done in the county office. Farmers and landowners should realize the sacrifice their county and township committees are making at this time of the year and do everything they can to cooperate.

That cooperation can include full attendance at the informational meetings Thursday and Friday nights. It might also include prompt sign-up of those interested in the program.

I do not have space here to list all the township committees who have a part in getting ready for the sign-up. However, the County Committee includes C. A. Staples of Houstonia as chairman; Norman Gibson of Route 2, Sedalia, and L. W. Ragar of Ionia as other members of the committee; the office manager, Carl E. Johnson of Green Ridge; and the program man, Erwin Rumpf of LaMonte.

Redemption of Certificates In Grain Will Reduce Surplus

Compensation on the program will be in negotiable certificates. Those issued with respect to wheat and corn may be redeemed in grain so will help to reduce the surplus.

Two Specialists Added to State Extension Staff

Two new marketing specialists have been added to the staff of the Missouri Agricultural Extension Service.

Thomas Day of Columbia has been named extension poultry marketing specialist. Glenn Grimes of Salem will work as extension livestock marketing specialist.

Both men will start their new jobs July 1. They will make possible an expanded extension marketing program in the livestock and poultry fields. This program is currently being carried on by Ted Joule, poultry marketing specialist, and Jim Reynolds, livestock marketing specialist.

Day is currently director of the egg division of the Missouri State Department of Agriculture. He is a 1952 graduate of the University of Missouri.

Grimes is a native of Hartsville and is also a graduate of the University of Missouri. HE is presently county extension agent of Dent County.

Questions Spelling Of 'Court House'

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Is it court house or courthouse?

The words "St. Louis County Court House" are out deep in stone over the governmental building in suburban Clayton. It wasn't questioned for six years.

Then the Metropolitan St. Louis Civic Register, an annual guide published recently, said, "It's courthouse, not court house," and cited a dictionary, the county charter and counselor's office as proof.

Defense arguments say there's a precedent for the two-word usage at the "U.S. Court House" downtown. And architects of the six-year-old building say the two-word style looks better.

The word "science" comes from the Latin "sciens," meaning "to know."

Soil Bank Meetings This Week

Plans are being made at this writing to hold a series of five meetings over the county this week to explain the "soil bank" program. The meetings will be held at Green Ridge and Houstonia on Thursday evening, June 28, and at Bahner, Cartwright and Sedalia on Friday night, June 29. All meetings will start at 8 p.m. and, except for Sedalia, will be at schools. The Sedalia meeting will be in the assembly room of the courthouse.

Representatives of the Extension and Farmers Home Administration offices will assist with the meetings.

surplus was given at the Higginsville meeting. Our storage costs alone amount to over a million dollars a day or 400 million dollars per year.

Missouri has 182,000 commercial farms with an average net income of $2,192. It would just about take all of Missouri's net income for a year to pay the surplus storage bill for the year. Looking at it another way, it takes about 3.7 per cent of the nation's net agricultural income of 11 billion to pay the annual storage cost.

Without counting this year's grain that is starting to be harvested, the latest surplus figures are nearly two years supply of wheat, slightly over two years supply of cotton and more than 1 1/2 years supply of feed grains.

If the soil bank will help reduce the surplus and the pressure of that surplus on the markets, we ought to see a lot of interest in the soil bank program.

Harris May Leave Tigers As Manager

DETROIT (AP) — Stanley W. (Bucky) Harris may be on his way out as manager of the Detroit Tigers.

The club has nosedived from the first division to sixth place with an eight-game losing streak, longest of the season in the American League. Walter O. (Spoke) Briggs Jr., youthful president of the Tigers, has been openly critical of what he terms lack of hustle and spirit.

Briggs said in an interview that he would "make a change right now" if the baseball company's ownership were not in such a muddled state.

The Tigers dropped their seventh and eighth games yesterday by 3-2 scores to the Baltimore Orioles.

Harris, 59, has produced just three pennant winners in a major league managerial career dating back to 1924, when he was installed as the "boy manager" of the Washington Nationals.

Briggs hired Harris before the 1955 season after Bucky had been let out at Washington. The Tigers wound up in fifth place, 17 games behind the pennant-winning New York Yankees. Detroit has not finished in the first division since 1950, when Red Rolfe led the club to second place.

Some sports writers and broadcasters have accused both the Tigers' field management and front office of "complacency" and some of the players have complained of what they call Harris' lack of aggressiveness.

Though he is regarded as one of baseball's soundest tacticians, Harris is a gentleman who rarely becomes excited. He has a minimum of contact with his players and seldom calls a clubhouse meeting.

Said one veteran player: "If he'd just take us apart once in awhile, I think we'd all be better off and play better ball. I know I would."

Harris has a one-year contract. Even before yesterday's double setback, Briggs said he had been considering a change, but hesitated because the club is up for sale. About half a dozen groups have put up $250,000 each for a look at the bucks, and the final bids will be decided upon by July 2.

Defense Chief Takes Fishing Trip in Canada

By ELTON C. FAY
QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — Harried Charles E. Wilson was off today on a meditative fishing trip in Canada, where there are no senators irate over words like "phony."

The secretary of defense concluded at his annual four-day session with the civilian and military chiefs at the Marine base here yesterday. He said it was a "very good conference," then left for a stay in Canada until midweek.

Behind him he left the explanation that he had not meant to insult any senators when he used the word "phony" in connection with a discussion of senatorial efforts to vote additional funds for the Air Force. He said he was "partly" misquoted or misunderstood, but told newsmen, "I don't blame you men too much. I blame myself."

He meant the "phony," he said, to refer to a reporter's question rather than to the senatorial action. But he stuck to his contention that the additional Air Force funds are not needed.

The word touched off a terrific storm in the Senate, facing a vote this week on its appropriations committee's addition of $1,160,000,000 for more planes, bases and men.

The furor was discussed Saturday by President Eisenhower and his aides in Washington, but press secretary James C. Hagerty replied "No" to a question whether the aides had urged Wilson to modify his earlier remarks.

Masters golf champion Jack Burke has averaged 71.15 strokes per 18 holes for his first 39 rounds in 1956.

Boyer Breaks Slump to Lead For Cardinals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ken Boyer, native Missourian whose big bat has been comparatively quiet recently, broke out of his slump with a bang for the St. Louis Cardinals.

The third baseman from Alba drove in three runs with two homers and a triple in five times at bat in the first game of a double-header yesterday at Philadelphia to power the Redbirds to an 8-4 victory. The Phils came back on a ninth-inning pinch single by Frankie Baumholtz to take the nightcap, 3-2.

Alvin Dark, shortstop acquired from the New York Giants, also contributed a home run in the initial game as Herm Wehmeier took the victory in relief of starter Murry Dickson, both former members of the Phils. It was Wehmeier's first bullpen appearance since May 13. He's been working as a starter.

In Kansas City, the Athletics turned back the Boston Red Sox in a single game, 5-2, on a two-run triple and homer by Harry (Suitcase) Simpson and a home run by Vic Power.

Simpson's blow cleared both the inner and outer walls in right field, a feat previously accomplished only by Larry Doby of Cleveland and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees. Jackie Jensen and Ted Williams homered for the Red Sox.

Alex Kellner picked up his fifth win for Kansas City against two losses on a six-hit pitching performance. Dave Sisler, Boston rookie who made his first start, took the loss after being taken out in the eighth inning. He gave up all the Athletics' runs.

Simpson's homer was his 12th of the season and his hitting brought his run-batted-in total for the year to 54.

Marlene Hagge Defeats Patty Berg to Win Ladies Golf Title

DETROIT (AP)—Port, blonde Marlene Hagge today headed for the Western Open at Des Moines with the Ladies Professional Golf Assn. championship and $1,350 of new cash in her purse.

The 22-year-old from Asheville, N. C., defeated the 38-year-old veteran Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill., on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff for the LPGA title at Forest Lake Country Club yesterday.

They ended the regulation 72 holes of medal play tied at 291. Mrs. Hagge got a par 5 on the first extra hole, sinking her 18-inch putt. Miss Berg missed from seven feet away.

And with that missed putt, Miss Berg failed again to win the only major title in women's golf that has eluded her over a 24-year career as a tournament golfer.

Charlie Coe Wins Golf Championship

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—Charlie Coe shot a remarkable game for 134 holes over the Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club course to win the 53rd Trans-Mississippi Golf championship.

Coe's fine game gave him his fourth trans-Mississippi championship. His other Trans titles were in 1947, 1949 and 1952. He also won the National Amateur in 1949.

Coe beat young Ronnie Wenzler of Memphis, Tenn., 11 and 9, in the scheduled 36-hole match yesterday. The slender, 32-year-old Oklahoma City oil man shot par golf for the first 18 holes and then was 3-under-par with a 32 on the nine holes of the afternoon round. Par for the 6,852-yard course is 36-36-71.

The Best Track, Field Men—

US Olympic Team Tryouts Begin Working This Week

By JACK STEVENSON

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—This week's best track and field talent in the United States has worked for months and even years—the final tryouts for Uncle Sam's Olympic team.

Veteran champions of the past Olympiads and high school boys will be on like footing at the Coliseum Friday and Saturday.

Fields of 15 athletes for each of the 17 events have been decided in a series of three championship tests, the armed forces, national collegiate and national AAU. Here only the three best will make the team for the fall trip to Australia. Record performances of the past two weeks signify the keenness of the competition for what could be this nation's greatest Olympic team.

One world record was smashed and another tied in the AAU event at Bakersfield, Calif., last Friday and Saturday, the final qualifying meet.

The Navy's Jack Davis, former

University of Southern California star, ran the 110-meter high hurdles in 13.4 seconds to better the mark of 13.5 that has stood since Dick Attlessey, also of USC, set it in 1950.

Equalled was the 10.2 second 100-meter record as speedy Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian continued his spring superiority.

All told, nine AAU meet records fell in the two evenings of competition. Just a week before 10 NCAA marks were bettered and 12 fell at the armed forces track battle.

Some veterans came through with flying colors and others fell by the wayside as injuries took their toll. The Rev. Bob Richards, Olympic champion in 1952, cleared 15 feet in the pole vault Saturday night in AAU competition to lead qualifiers for that event.

On the other hand, veteran Harrison Dillard who won the Olympic 100-meter dash in 1948 and the 110-high hurdles in 1952, just barely makes it to the final trials. His 14.4 seconds in the hurdles ranks well down the list.

Lindy Remigio, who surprised by winning the Olympic gold medal in the 100-meter dash at Helsinki, Finland, four years ago, couldn't qualify in that event but squeaked in at the 200.

Northwestern's Jim Golliday, coholder of the world 100-yard sprint mark, failed to qualify at Bakersfield after being hampered by injuries all spring.

The Rev. Franklin (Bud) Held, holder of the recognized world record in the javelin throw, also failed to qualify. But the Olympic committee, in unprecedented action yesterday, voted to allow him in the trials. Held also has been on the injury list and is just rounding into form.

At the same time, the committee decided to let Duke's speedy Dave Sime compete in the 200-meter dash trials if he so desires. The record-smashing sprinter had qualified for the 100-meter by placing second at the NCAA meet, but pulled a muscle in his groin during the 200 and dropped from the race.

White Sox Sweep Four Game Series to Trim Yank Lead

By JOE REICHLER

The Associated Press

Any thoughts of a New York Yankee runaway in the American League have evaporated like their once handsome 6½-game bulge.

The White Sox drubbed Casey Stengel's defending champions 14-2 and 6-3 yesterday to sweep their four-game series. The White Sox zoomed to within one game of the Yankees.

Not since 1945, when the St. Louis Browns accomplished the feat, has any team swept a four-game set from the Yankees.

The Yankees now boast a slimmer first-place lead than their National League counterparts, the Milwaukee Braves, who boosted their margin to two games by knocking off the New York Giants twice, 6-2 and 7-1, for their ninth and tenth straight triumphs. The Braves haven't tasted defeat since Fred Haney replaced Charlie Grimm at the helm a week ago.

Cincinnati's slugging Redlegs swept past Brooklyn into second place, winning two from the Dodgers 10-6 and 2-1. St. Louis and Philadelphia split, the Phillies winning 3-2, the Cardinals 8-4.

Pittsburgh ended an eight-game losing streak with an abbreviated five-inning, 1-0 victory over Chicago. The Cubs won the first game 5-3.

The Baltimore Orioles dealt Detroit a double 3-2 loss, stretching the Tigers' losing streak to eight in a row. Kansas City downed the Boston Red Sox 5-2 behind the sixth pitching of southpaw Alex Kellner. Cleveland defeated Washington 7-2.

Three-run homers by Larry Doby in the first inning of each game started the White Sox off. The Sox slaughtered Whitey Ford and two relievers for 18 hits in the opener, making it easy for Billy Pierce to breeze to his 11th triumph against two defeats.

Neither Ford nor Maury McDermott, second game starter, lasted through the first inning as the Sox rolled to their eighth success in a row. Gerry Staley, ex-Yankee, notched the nightcap win although he needed help from Dixie Howell.

Milwaukee got superb pitching from right-handers Lew Burdette and Gene Conley as they swept all four games from New York. Burdette yielded four hits in the opener. Conley was touched for four safeties until he gave way to Dave Jolly in the seventh inning of the second game. Danny O'Connell drove in three runs with a home run in the first game and knocked in two runs with a bases-loaded single in the second.

The Redleg raiders pounded six homers against Dodger pitching, three by catcher Ed Bailey and solos by Ted Kluszewski, Frank Robinson and Bob Thurman. Joe Nuxhall won it.

Home runs by Al Rosen, Earl Averill and Bobby Avila paved the way for Cleveland's sixth straight triumph and Bob Lemon's ninth success against four losses.

Billy Loes and Ray Moore, a pair of ex-Dodgers, received credit for the Baltimore victories over Detroit. Home runs by Willie Miranda and Billy Gardner won the first game and Tito Francona's double chased in the winning run in the nightcap.

For Kansas City, Harry Simpson drove in three runs with a home run and triple and Vic Power batted in two with a single and home run to make it easy for Kellner.

Pinch hitter Frank Baumholtz's ninth-inning single scored Elmer Valo with the run that gave the Phillies a split in their twin bill against the Cardinals. Ken Boyer paced the Redbirds to their first game victory with a pair of home runs and a triple.

Rain, which came in the sixth inning with the Pirates ahead 1-0, helped Pittsburgh snap its eight-game losing streak. The victory went to Laurin Pepper, a bonus right-hander, his first in the majors. Spook Jacobs, who joined the Pirates Friday, singled in Eddie O'Brien with the only score off loser Sam Jones. Walt Moryn's seventh homer highlighted Chicago's two-run rally in the eighth of the opener that broke up a 3-3 deadlock.

Doby Slams 2 Home Runs For White Sox

CHICAGO (AP)—"Larry Doby, he's our guy," said a happy back Comiskey after his Chicago White Sox had beaten the New York Yankees twice yesterday to sweep a four-game series.

Doby slammed two three-run homers, one in the first inning of each game, as the Sox tagged the Yankees 14-2 and 6-3 and moved within one game of the American League leaders.

The double triumph stretched the Sox victory string to eight straight, longest in the league.

"You know, when we dealt for Doby," said Comiskey, vice president of the White Sox, "we weren't worried about Larry. We knew he'd come through. Our biggest worry was Luis Aparicio and he's been over and above anything we expected."

The Sox traded shortstop Chico Carrasquel and center-fielder Jim Busby to Cleveland for Doby in an effort to add punch to their lineup.

Although Doby didn't hurt the Sox early in the season, he failed to come through with the long ball and the Chicagoans were flirting dangerously with second division.

Doby suddenly found the mark and now has blasted seven home runs, six of them in their current eight-game winning streak.

Four of his homers have been against the Yankees, long a jinx team for the White Sox.

Charleston Senators Win Doubleheader To Trim Denver Lead

The Denver Bears return home today in the midst of a six-game losing streak that has cut their American Assn. lead to 5½ games.

Charleston's fast-improving Senators, now 14 games behind in the cellar, bounced Denver twice Sunday at Charleston, 4-2 and 10-1. Indianapolis held onto second place by edging St. Paul in the nightcap, 3-2, after dropping the opener, 10-9. Louisville copped the second game, 5-3, after losing the first to visiting Omaha, 7-3. Wichita avenged a 3-1 first game loss to Minneapolis by winning the nightcap, 9-5.

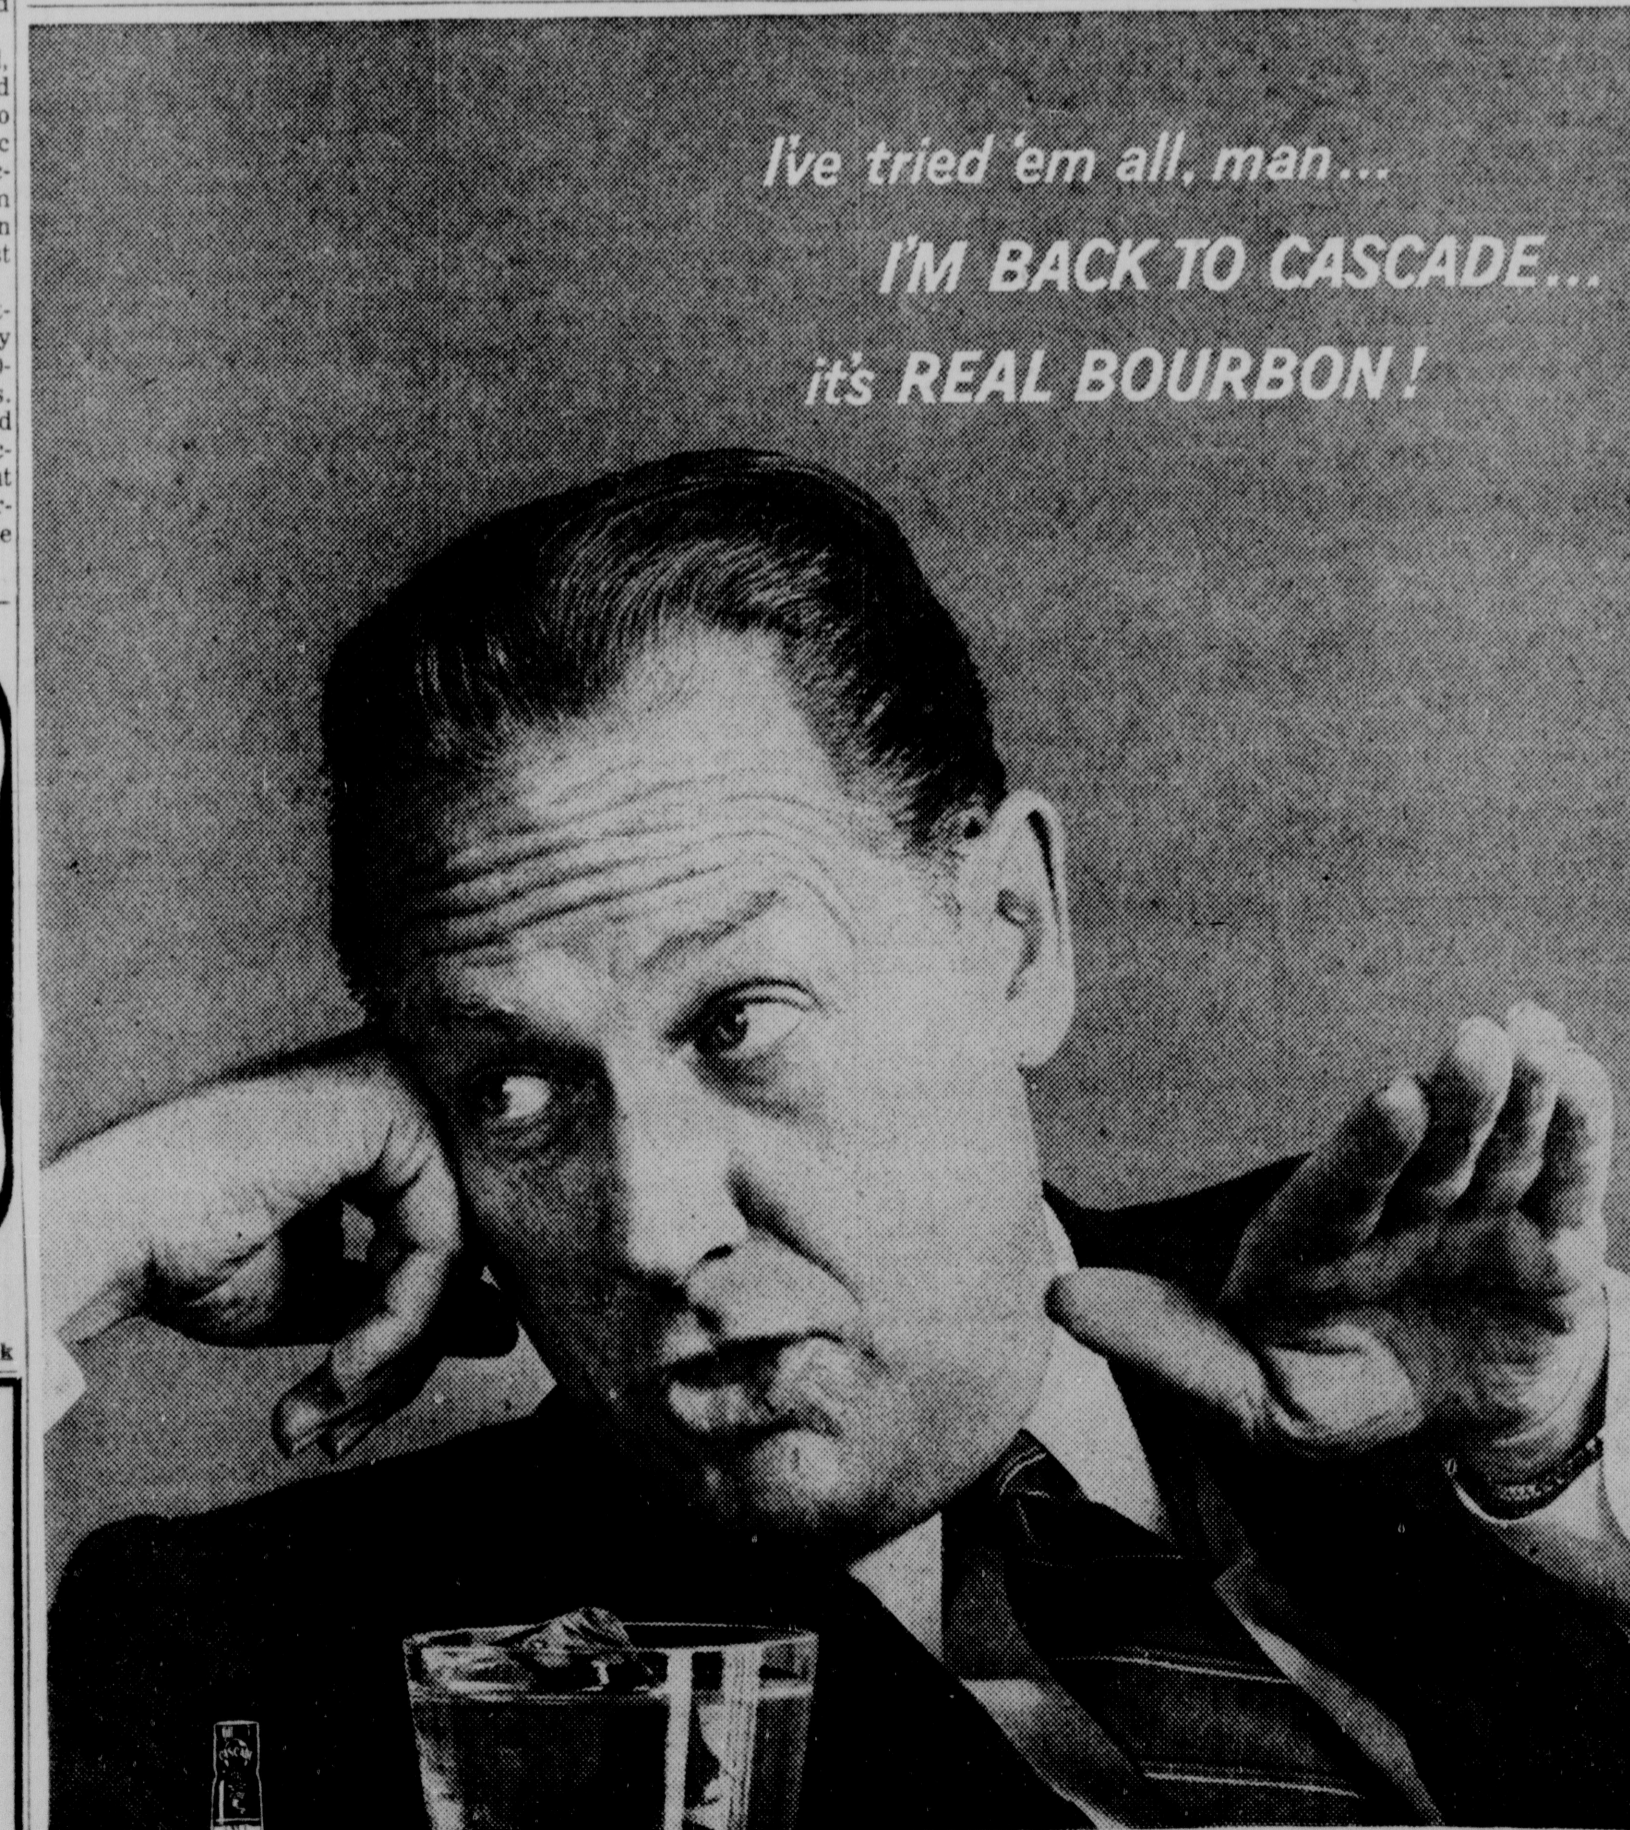

Joe Margeroni limited Wichita to two hits in the seven-inning first game to assure Minneapolis' victory. The Millers got only three hits off there Wichita pitchers but bunched two of them with two walks and two infield outs for three runs in the fourth.

London Firm Makes a Career Of Answering Odd Queries

NEW YORK (AP) — A London author writing a play about Jesus Christ recently wanted to find out on what day of the week the Savior had been born.

He turned for help to Hugo Dunn-Meynell, known as Britain's "Mr. Knowledge."

Dunn-Meynell is managing director of an unusual firm called "Finders Limited," which for a fee will ferret out information for a client or perform any odd job so long "as it is legal and moral."

He and his 25 assistants pored over hundreds of volumes of Biblical scholarship before coming up with this answer:

"Jesus probably was born either at Wednesday or Thursday mid-night, but we can't go beyond that. Internal evidence within the Bible itself makes it unlikely he could have been born on any other day of the week."

This has been the most interesting of the queries that pour into his firm at the rate of about 200 a week, but there have been many strange ones.

An American, for example, wrote and asked that a hotel bed he had slept in during a stay in London be sent to him.

"It was extremely comfortable," he explained. Finders Limited went to the hotel, bought the bed, and shipped it over.

Dunn-Meynell, who is 30, slender and wears a ginger goatee, served in the British navy and studied law before launching his unique career. It has taken him to most parts of the world, and he is now making a 13,000-mile trip around America.

His organization is geared for emergencies. Once it had to charter a car and race 35 miles to deliver a pair of forgotten false teeth to a British lady executive in time for her to make a speech to her stockholders.

It takes in stride weird requests to locate such items as an elephant's foot, a pre-revolutionary recording of the old Russian national anthem, or a nulla-nulla, which is an Australian throwing stick.

Once a horrified gentleman phoned for aid in a terrible personal dilemma. In sending some flowers he had gotten the cards mixed. The one he had sent to a funeral read "many happy returns of the day." The one he had sent to his lady friend read "with deepest sympathy." Finders Limited saved the day for him by dispatching an agent who changed the card before the mourners arrived.

"Our clients keep us on our toes," said Dunn-Meynell. "We never know what we'll be asked to do next."

Not long ago he had a hurry-up call from the Family Planning Assn. of Great Britain for toads, which are used in pregnancy tests.

He put an ad in "The Times" reading "300 male toads urgently needed"—and they flooded in from all parts of the English countryside.

His fees range from about 65 cents for a simple request for information up to $500 to make a market study of, say, the commercial possibilities of chocolate-flavored toothpaste in Saudi Arabia.

Most Americans are interested in backtracking their ancestors. Dunn-Meynell particularly enjoys these searches, for he has an impressive ancestry himself. He is "Lord of the Manor" of Yarm, a village in Yorkshire, where his family has had a large estate since 1280.

The prerogatives of his position don't worry him much.

"The Lord of the Manor is entitled to open the local fair," he said, smiling, "and to greet royalty—if they should ever happen by."

The signature of the President of the United States makes a bill a law.

"SUPER" ART—New York City artists work on a block-long mural, their canvas the construction fence surrounding site of a 38-story skyscraper now under construction. Scene will be changed with the seasons until the building is completed. Billed as the world's first bronze-clad skyscraper, it's to be known as the "Seagram Building."

Charges Arsenal Use Threat Is Against Israel

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel charges Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser has threatened to use his growing arsenal to launch an attack against her.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman protested to the U.N. Israeli-Egyptian Armistice Commission that Nasser violated the armistice agreement between the two countries in his Suez Canal celebration speech June 19.

He said Cairo radio quoted Nasser as declaring: "We have lost a precious part of our homeland: Palestine has been paralyzed. We are now obliged to be strong in order to liberate the entire Arab land from Morocco to Baghdad and in order to retrieve the rights of Palestine's people."

The spokesman claimed the statement points to aggressive action "being planned and threatened against this country."

The spokesman also cited the recent tightening of the Suez blockade by Egypt against Israel, bound shipping and charged that Egypt is massing troops on Israel's border.

St. Huber is the patron saint of huntsmen.

Guatemala Finds Communist Plot In Mass Meet

GUATEMALA (AP) — The Guatemalan government, announcing discovery of a Communist plot, has imposed a form of martial law on the country to "prevent seditious disorders."

President Carlos Castillo Armas' regime decreed a "state of alarm" after police broke up a mass meeting yesterday sponsored by the newly formed National Civic Committee.

Demonstrators at the gathering of about 400 persons outside the capital's railway station had distributed leaflets demanding cancellation of Guatemala's mutual aid pact with the United States and a lifting of the ban on Communist activities.

A government statement charged the meeting was part of "a subversive plot by Communists hiding within the territory of the republic to disturb the peace."

Six persons were arrested and telephone service was interrupted for four hours. The state of alarm decree suspends a dozen or so constitutional rights and allows the government to prohibit public meetings, make arrests without warrants and impose censorship.

There was no interference with news dispatches sent abroad, however.

Tipton MFA Receives First Load of Wheat

H. E. Haldiman, manager of the Tipton MFA Co-op Association, announces that the first load of wheat of the current season came in Wednesday, June 20.

It was from Herman Lutz and it tested No. 1, the paying price being $1.86.

Haldiman states that the MFA shipped out a carload of barley on Wednesday, something which hadn't occurred for some time.

If barley keeps coming in as it has, it may be necessary to ship a second car. It is bringing 85 cents for the 48-pound bushel.

Saving By Spending

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Chairman Roger W. Hart of the board of education says Fairfield can save money by spending money to build new schools. He told fellow board members that if five schools here are replaced with new buildings, the annual maintenance cost will be cut by $145,000.

Says Senate
Must Approve
Fund Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said today possible loss of overseas air bases by this country is an important reason for the Senate to approve a billion-dollar increase in Air Force funds.

"The truth is that our overseas bases are becoming less and less reliable to support our air-atomic power. . . . From Iceland to Okinawa, key strategic bases are now under political attack," Jackson said in a speech prepared for Senate delivery.

Jackson contended that if the overseas bases are lost, more B-52 long-range bombers capable of operating from this country will be needed to deter the increasing Soviet strategic air power.

The principal issue, as the Senate debated the big Defense Department appropriations bill, was whether—and how much—to increase the funds President Eisenhower asked for the Air Force.

The Senate Appropriations Committee, while cutting slightly some sections of Eisenhower's 15 1/2-billion-dollar Air Force budget, voted to add $1,600,000,000 for additional planes, bases and manpower.

The committee raised the bill's total to $34,838,000,000, a figure $35 millions above Eisenhower's requests and $1,300,000,000 above the amount voted by the House.

Sen. Chavez (D-NM), floor manager for the bill, said he is confident the Senate will approve the big Air Force increase by a margin of "6 to 10 votes."

Republicans hope to substitute a lesser 500-million-dollar increase proposed by Sen. Bridges (R-NH). Bridges said, however, that senatorial "resentment" at Secretary of Defense Wilson may result in a bigger increase.

Priest Will Stay on Job
At Prison

By EDWARD NICKERSON

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — "I'm not going to sing a swan song and say goodbye because I'm not going anywhere," the small, spare, elderly Roman Catholic priest peered over his spectacles at his audience—a roomful of inmates of the Maryland Penitentiary and Baltimore city jail.

"I'm going to hang around this place because I love it. I know you can't appreciate that — you'd rather hang around somewhere else," he said, smiling as the prisoners laughed.

The speaker was the Rev. Joseph J. Aydt, S. J., a 74-year-old Baltimorean with long white hair, a reddish face and the leprechaun look of Barry Fitzgerald.

The occasion was his last Mass yesterday in the big, gray stone building where he had ministered, "off and on," to men for 38 years.

During those years this tough, kindly man helped 54 men through their last hours in the death house, and fought long and hard for a commutation of death sentence and sometimes freedom for others when he felt justice had erred.

Retirement, as Father Aydt indicated, will be only a relative thing. A professor emeritus of Loyola College in Baltimore, an authority on psychology and sociology, he has written many articles, books and newspaper columns. He plans to use his added free time for more writing.

There will be time too for what he calls his "busman's holiday"—reading crime stories.

It is the kindly side that comes out strong among the prisoners, but it was the tough side that must have come out when Father Aydt initiated and pushed through exhaustive investigations of the facts of death-sentence cases and gained commutations of sentences for 11 men.

The best known of these was that of James La Guardia, 29-year-old circus roustabout sentenced to death for alleged rape not many years ago. Father Aydt started a probe of the circumstances that led to commutation and eventual freedom for La Guardia and two youths accused with him. Father Aydt turned down an offer to go to Hollywood and make a movie of that one.
